1. In early June 1952 the Chikungshan (114-11, 31-50) Telecommunications Administration was staffed by about 110 Chinese and about 10 Soviet advisers, who worked day and night shifts. The Administration was in the former Chungshan Middle School; the building was heavily guarded and only authorized persons were admitted. LIN Piao occasionally visited the Administration and conferred with the Soviet advisers. When in Chikungshan he resided at a house owned by KUAN Ling-p'u (4619/7227/0944). TENG Tzu-hui frequently went to Chikungshan, but seldom at the same time as LIN Piao. TENG was usually accompanied by aides and stayed at the Administration. The Administration is said to be the general nerve center for an unknown mission.
2. In early June construction work in Chikungshan was quite active. The people in Chikungshan seemed quiet and contented and the streets were clean and orderly.
